

With over 20 year experience in the catering trade Bluebell Catering offer a modern innovative take of the classic buffet menu. With speciality options available such as "Bread Sushi" along-side more traditional offerings, your guests will be delighted with the choices available.

A buffet really doesn't need to comprise bland sandwiches, sausage rolls and soggy salad. With the application of a little passion and imagination they can make your event more than memorable, for all the right reasons.

They offer a full suite of event catering for all occasions both indoor and outdoors. A selection of our sample menus can be found on their website.

Based in Osgodby near Selby they cater for event throughout the Selby and York areas.
