

Located in the heart of Snaith, East Yorkshire The Brewers Arms Hotel has easy access from local towns and cities and is located close to access to the motorway network. In addition to everything you might expect from a village pub they have several high quality suites and rooms and provide bed and breakfast for visitors wishing to stay. Their function room is idea for all occasions including:- Weddings, Christenings, Charity Events, Birthdays, Reunions, Funerals and Business Meetings. They specilise as a wedding venue.

They have three wedding packages available to suit wedding parties on various budgets. Call Chris or Chrissie on 01405 862404 for details. They also have six large luxury en-suite recently refurbished bedrooms available for those guests who wish to stay.

Their extensive menu is all home made by their chef and full menus are available on their website. There are also daily specials available and unique menus can be arranged for parties using their function room. The function room is available for hire for all types of occasions. They work closely with each party ensuring that you have a unique and individual event and that all your needs are catered for within your budget.

10 Pontefract Road, Snaith Nr, Goole, East Yorkshire. DN14 9JS

Phone - 01405 862404

Fax - 01405 862397

<http://www.thebrewersarms.co.uk>