

The Brewers Arms is just what you expect from a good English Pub, welcoming and friendly, serving great food, particularly the fish, and some brilliant beer, brewed 100 yards away at the Old Mill Brewery in the village.

The Brewers Arms is a small, cosy, traditional style hotel situated between Goole and Pontefract in the heart of Snaith. The pubs traditional open planned décor with wood fires gives it a relaxed and friendly atmosphere. A common stop over for businessmen and tourists, this pub attracts many different clientèle. Friendly staff on hand throughout the premises allows the pub to cater for everybody?s needs. In the bright summer months, customers can come and relax with a refreshing pint and snacks from the bar, in the pubs stunning beer garden. With real cask ales, a wide selection of fine single malt whisky and good quality home cooked food you'll never want to leave. Larger functions can be catered for and the pub can accommodate up to 80 guests, all types of parties can be catered for. The Brewers Arms has regularly been featured in the Good Beer Guide 2011, 2013 & 2014.

The Brewers Arms is a well known and highly thought of pub in the village of Snaith. Brewery Tap for Old Mill, four current beers available, Traditional Bitter, Blonde Bombshell, plus two seasonal ales. Lounge Bar, with two side rooms, and separate restaurant serving high quality food, cooked by a skilled chef. Lounge has a well featuring in the middle, and a raised adults only area by one of three fires. Interesting room ornaments and paintings.

The current menu can be download here (PDF ? 10.08.14)

10 Pontefract Rd
Snaith
DN14 9JS
01405 862404

www.oldmillbrewery.co.uk

{fcomment}